

World Day of Prayer

Thursday, 11 February 2010

This year's central ecumenical service for World Day of Prayer in Bad Godesberg will be held in the Herz Jesu Kirche, Kirchbergstraße in Bonn-Lannesdorf on Friday, March 5th at 4 pm. The service will definitely have an African flair to it as it has been put together by women from Cameroon, and has the title "let everything that has breath praise God". The music promises to be lively. Please put this date into your diary and try to come. There will be coffee and tea afterwards, with a chance to talk too. More information is available from Devika Homann or Anna Dorst.
